“THE PROMISE POURED OUT”

ACTS 2:1-21

As we gather for worship this Lord's Day, we turn our attention to one of the most significant passages in all of Scripture: Acts 2:1-21. In this portion of God's Word, we witness the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the church at Pentecost and the public inauguration of the New Covenant age through the reign of the risen Christ.

Our sermon, "The Promise Poured Out," will focus upon the faithfulness of God in fulfilling His promises through Jesus Christ. The same Lord who was crucified at Passover now pours out His Spirit upon His people. Heaven's power fills the gathered church, and the mighty works of God are proclaimed to the nations.

Acts 2 reminds us that the church exists through the power of the Holy Spirit working through the Word of God. The gospel proclaimed at Pentecost continues to go forth today with the same glorious promise:

"And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Join us as we study this magnificent passage together and rejoice in the saving grace of our risen King, who still gathers sinners to Himself through the preaching of the gospel.

The poster for "Art in the Annex" features a background of orange and yellow brushstrokes. The title "Art in the Annex" is written in a large, white, cursive font. To the right, the text "An evening of painting, creativity, and fellowship" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font. Below this, the date and time "Tuesday, May 26, 7 PM" and the location "Redeemer Church" are listed. The address "768 State Route 220, Piketon, Ohio 45661" is provided. At the bottom, it says "Ages 10 & up. All skill levels welcome. Canvas, supplies & light refreshments provided." An illustration of an easel with a colorful painting and a paint palette is shown on the right side.

THE FRUIT OF LOVE

HENRY MAHAN

And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

1 John 4:16

It is the same as if he had said, "We know the love of God for us by believing." Such knowledge is only attained by faith. The love of God is in Christ (Rom. 8:38-39). No man knows nor can be certain of the love and mercy of God to sinners except as he believes in and knows Christ.

All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

- Matthew 11:27

We go from faith to love; by faith in Christ, God dwells in us, and God is love. Then, wherever God abides, love will be there. Hence, it follows that he that exercises love to God and to men dwells in God and God in him.

John begins to show the fruit of God's love to us and our love for God; we can dare to stand boldly before God now at the throne of grace and later at the final judgment.

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus,²⁰ by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh,²¹ and since we have a great priest over the house of God,²² let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

-Hebrews 10:19-22

By nature we dread the presence of God, and justly so, for our sins hold us guilty; therefore, condemnation and hell must come to our minds when we think of God. Natural man has reason to fear and shun the presence of God.

But the believer does not fear the Day of Judgment; on the contrary, we approach death and judgment confidently and cheerfully because of his love to us in Christ. As Christ is the Son of God by nature, we are sons of God by adoption. As he is loved by the Father with an everlasting and unchangeable love, so are we loved by him with the same love even while we are in this world (1 John 3:1-2). As he was a man of sorrows, afflicted, tempted, hated and tempted by Satan, so are we! Moreover, as he is now in heaven, so are we representatively in him.

and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,

THE SPIRIT POURED OUT

ACTS 2:1-21

Have you ever waited for something exciting to happen? Maybe you counted down the days until Christmas, a birthday, or a family trip. In Acts chapter 2, the disciples of Jesus were waiting too. Jesus had promised that He would send the Holy Spirit to help His people. The disciples gathered together in Jerusalem and waited for God's promise to come.

Then something amazing happened.

The Bible says there was suddenly a sound from heaven like a mighty rushing wind. Tongues like fire appeared over the disciples, and they were filled with the Holy Spirit. God showed His power in a wonderful way. The disciples began speaking in languages they had never learned before. People from many different nations heard the disciples telling about the mighty works of God in their own languages.

God was showing that the good news about Jesus is for people everywhere.

Before Jesus returned to heaven, He told His followers to preach the gospel to all nations. At Pentecost, God began gathering people from many lands to hear about Christ. The Holy Spirit gave the disciples courage to speak boldly about Jesus.

Peter stood before the crowd and explained that God was keeping the promises He had spoken through the prophets long ago. Then Peter shared this wonderful truth:

“Everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” - Acts 2:21

That promise is still true today. Jesus came into the world to save sinners. He died on the cross for our sins and rose again from the dead. Everyone who trusts in Jesus can be forgiven and have eternal life.

The Holy Spirit still works today. He helps people understand God's Word. He changes hearts and helps Christians love and follow Jesus.

Questions to Think About

1. What happened when the Holy Spirit came at Pentecost?
2. Why were people amazed by the disciples?
3. Who can be saved according to Acts 2:21?
4. How does the Holy Spirit help Christians today?

Memory Verse

“And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”
Acts 2:21

THE PROMISE POURED OUT

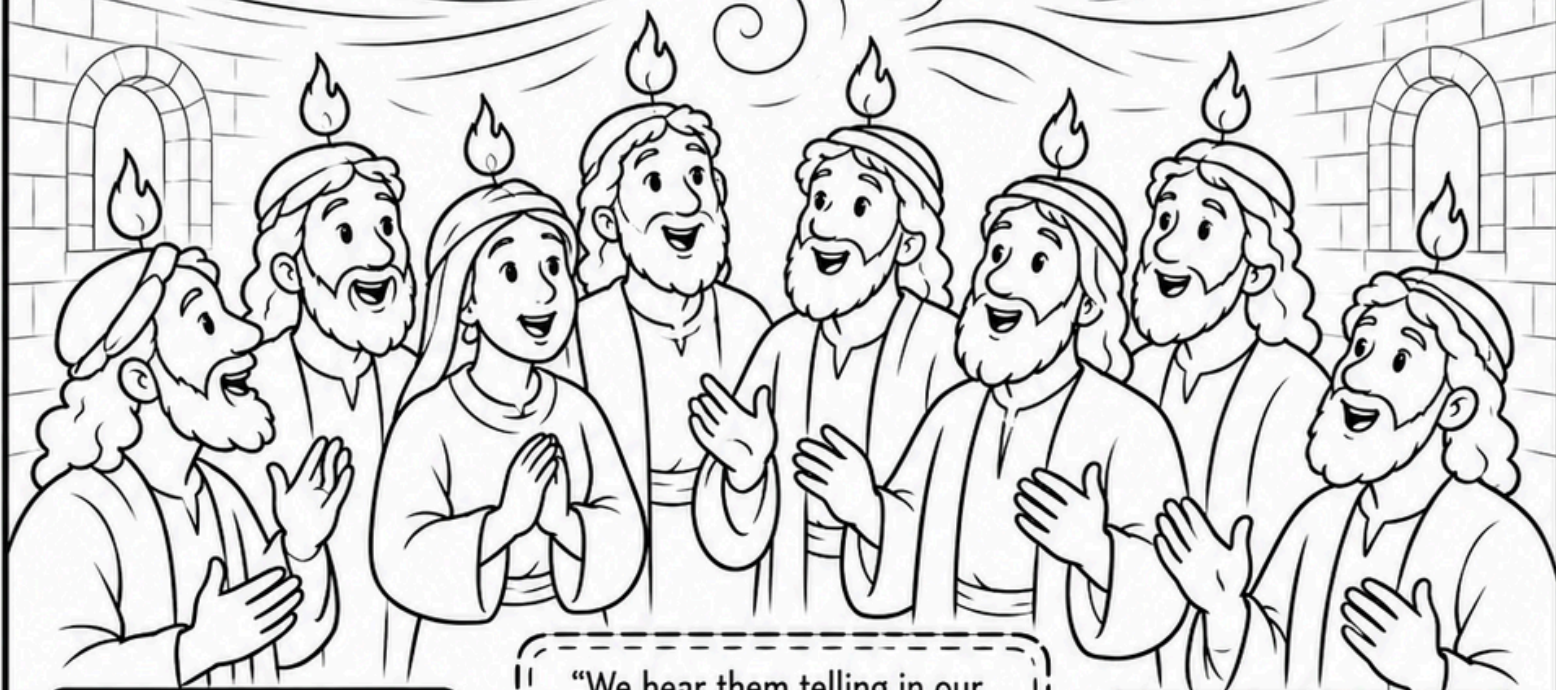

Suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind.

Acts 2:2

Divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them.

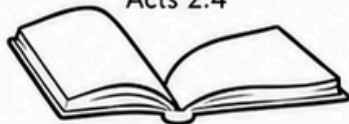

Acts 2:3

Acts 2:1-21

They began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Acts 2:4

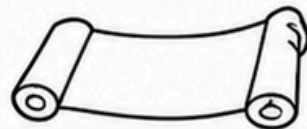

"We hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God!"

Acts 2:11

But Peter stood up with the eleven and lifted up his voice.

Acts 2:14

"And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Acts 2:21

GOD KEEPS HIS PROMISES!

The Holy Spirit gives power. The gospel goes forth.

• Everyone who calls on the Lord can be saved! •
