ALL GRACE ABOUNDING:

THE GENEROSITY THAT FLOWS FROM GOD'S UNSPEAKABLE GIFT

2 Corinthians 9:6-15

Welcome to Redeemer Church! Today's sermon, "All Grace Abounding: The Generosity That Grows from God's Unspeakable Gift," brings us to 2 Corinthians 9:6–15 and the abundant grace of God that bears fruit in the lives of His people.

As Paul encourages believers to care for one another, he directs their confidence to the God who supplies their needs and equips them for fruitful service. Grace opens our hearts to give willingly, teaches us to receive humbly, and turns ordinary acts of kindness into occasions for thanksgiving to God. At the center of this generosity stands His greatest gift, our Lord Jesus Christ.

As we gather around God's Word, may we hear the Gospel with thankful hearts, rest in our Father's faithful provision, and grow in joyful love for one another.

SMALL GIFTS, WILLING HEARTS

2 CORINTHIANS 9:6–15

"For God loveth a cheerful giver."
2 Corinthians 9:7

Have you ever thought, "I'll be generous when I'm older and have more money"? You might look at what you have and wonder how it could help anyone.

In this week's sermon, All Grace Abounding, we learn that God's grace makes us willing to share what He has already entrusted to us. Paul was encouraging Christians to help believers who needed the necessities of life. Their gifts would meet real needs and give others a reason to thank God.

You can begin practicing that kind of generosity now. You might share your lunch, give some of your spending money toward a need, or take time to help someone who is struggling. Ask yourself: "What has God given me that I could use to care for someone else?"

Our generosity grows from the grace we receive through Jesus Christ. He gave Himself for sinners and rose again, securing salvation for His people. Forgiveness and acceptance with God come freely through Him. As we trust Christ and remember His love, we learn to give with grateful hearts.

God knows your resources and your limitations. A small gift can meet a real need. And when you need help yourself, you can receive it thankfully. We all depend on His care.

Think about it
Who could you help this week, and what could you willingly share?

Prayer
Father, thank You for Your grace through Jesus Christ. Help me notice the needs around me. Give me a willing heart to share and humility to receive help. May my kindness lead others to thank You. Amen.

CHEERFUL GIVING
